
WEEBIT NANO LIMITED
FINANCE, AUDIT & RISK COMMITTEE CHARTER

Purpose

This Charter sets out the role, responsibilities, composition, structure and processes of the Finance, Audit & Risk Committee (FARC or Committee) established by the Board of Weebit Nano Limited (Weebit).

Role Of The Committee

1. The Committee assists the Board in corporate governance and oversight by managing corporate reporting, risk management, fraud, internal controls, audit functions, and compliance with legal and regulatory obligations. Its authority is defined in the Charter or as authorised by the Board.

Committee Responsibilities

2. In addition to the matters that are specified in the WBT Constitution or by law to be fulfilled by the Board, the Board has delegated responsibility for the following matters to the Committee:

Corporate Reporting

- Review quarterly (if relevant), half year and annual financial statements presented by management, together with reports and opinions from the external auditor.
- Review significant accounting and reporting issues and assess the appropriateness of accounting policies and methods chosen by management, particularly those relating to significant accounting estimates and judgements and the assessment of going concern.
- Review recent regulatory and professional pronouncements and understand their impact on the financial statements.
- Review the results of the audit with the external auditor, including significant adjustments, uncorrected misstatements and any difficulties encountered or unresolved disagreements with management.
- Review the appropriateness of disclosures in the financial statements and financial Reports.
- Review management representations, including the CEO and CFO declarations regarding the financial report and financial records.
- Recommend to the Board whether the relevant financial reports should be approved.
- Review management's process for ensuring that information contained in analyst briefings, investor presentations and press announcements is consistent with published financial information and is balanced and transparent.

External Audit

- Assess the quality and effectiveness of the audit conducted and evaluate performance of the auditor.
- Provide a recommendation to the Board on the selection, appointment, re-appointment or replacement of the external auditor and rotation of the engagement partner.
- Review with the external auditor the scope and terms of the audit and the audit fee including a review of non-audit services provided by the external auditor.
- Review the audit plan for coverage of material risks and financial reporting requirements.
- Monitor and review auditor independence and objectivity.
- Review reports from the external auditors (including auditor's reports, closing reports and management letters).
- Discuss with the external auditors matters relating to the conduct of the audit, including any difficulties encountered, any restrictions on scope of activities or access to information, significant disagreements with management and the adequacy of management response.

Internal Audit

Assessment and determination of whether an internal audit function is required. On the basis of implementation of an internal audit function:

- Assess the overall effectiveness and evaluate performance of the internal audit function.

Risk Management,
Fraud and Internal Control

- Review and approve the internal audit charter.
- Review and approve the internal audit plan.
- Review reports of results of internal audit engagements, and other audit-related activities including remediation of previous internal audit report actions.
- Consider the impact of the entity's culture on risk management and internal control.
- Review the effectiveness of processes for identifying the entity's risks, including cyber security risks and the appropriateness of the risk management procedures to maintain activities within the Board's risk appetite.
- Review disclosures in the annual corporate governance statement in relation to the recognition and management of business risks.
- Review the annual placement of insurance policies, and where applicable, recommend whether they should be approved to the Board.
- Enquire of management, the internal auditor and the external auditor whether they are aware of any actual, suspected or alleged fraud or corruption affecting the entity and how they responded to such instances.

Compliance and Ethics

- Consider the impact of the entity's culture on compliance processes.
- Review the effectiveness of the entity's systems, policies and practices that relate to compliance with laws, regulations, internal policies and accounting standards.
- Provide oversight of the mechanisms established by management to establish and maintain ethical standards within the organisation.
- Review and monitor related party transactions.
- Discuss with management whether all regulatory compliance matters of the entity have been considered in the preparation of the financial statements, such as compliance with accounting standards and the requirement for the financial statements to reflect a 'true and fair' view.

Committee Composition

3. The members of the Committee are appointed by the Board, in consultation with the Governance Committee.
4. The Committee will consist of at least three members all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors of the Board.
5. Each member must have a working familiarity with general finance and accounting practices. At least one member of the Committee must have accounting or related financial management expertise.

Committee Chair

6. The Committee Chair is appointed by the Board, in consultation with the Governance Committee
7. The Committee Chair must be an independent director of the Board, and must not be the Chair of the Board.
8. The Committee Chair's primary responsibilities are leading the Committee and overseeing the processes for the Committee fulfilling its responsibilities under this Charter. The Committee Chair is also responsible for:
 - a) Chairing Committee meetings and facilitating open and effective discussion at Committee meetings;
 - b) Maintaining communications with Management and the Company Secretary in relation to the Committee's information requirements; and
 - c) Serving as the primary link between the Committee and the Board.

Committee Secretary
